

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
Removal goods	Italian Citizen returning: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Consular declaration* issued by the nearest Italian consulate stating the length of the stay abroad (at least 12 months), names of family members and the returning date. This has to be accompanied by a general list in Italian of the goods moved legalized by the consulate. No values have to appear on this list. • Passport copy. • Photocopy of the Italian fiscal code. • “Usmaf” Declaration (related to the anti-mould products). • “Dichiarazione di libera importazione” (declaration to confirm that imported goods are not among the ones whose importation is forbidden). • Autocertificazione (important document which implies the penal responsibility of the owner) in which customer declares his transfer of residence from abroad to Italy, the status of his family and the value of the goods and the features of the audio-visual items, if included. 	As a general rule the Italian Customs authorities grant free entry to household removal goods and vehicles that have been used by the importer for more than 6 months. A duty free importation can be allowed within 12 months from the date of residence registration in Italy. It is highly recommended to obtain the green light from the Italian agent before forwarding a shipment to Italy. Some customs offices require the declaration of the freight value at time of the clearance (and if shipment were dutiable, this would be a component on which duties/taxes will be calculated on, in addition to the customs value attributed to the goods). Origin agent could be required to provide this information. * In case consular paperwork were not available or could not be obtained (some Italian consulates/embassies – particularly in USA - are no longer willing to provide the consular declaration since they state this is no longer needed), an Italian returning citizen will need to give evidence of the period of stay in the country where the shipment is originating from. Proof can be provided through the AIRE (Anagrafe Italiani residenti all’Estero), with a historical residence certificate issued by the Italian city hall or submitting a declaration issued by the company the importer has worked for.	Tobacco in any form, spirits, wine, food or firearms, ammunitions, weapons (including swords, hunting knives...) should not be included in the shipment. All audio-visual items such as TV, radio, stereo, video-recorder, DVD player and personal computers are to be listed with serial number and trademark. Only audio-visual sets that are marked “CE” (European Commission) can enter Italy. If they do not have the CE Logo, they can only enter if they were purchased before January 1996. Customs might inspect these items to check whether they meet requirements. Proof of purchase before January 1996 might be required.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Copy of the residence application - Italian returning citizen will need to re-apply for residence upon return and before the arrival of the shipment at the port/airport. A copy of the residence application will be required by the customs authorities. Some customs offices still require an original document. Foreign Citizen: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Copy of the residence application showing the last residence country (this has to correspond to the origin of the shipment). Some customs offices still require the official certificate of residence in original. • Photocopy of passport. • Photocopy of the Italian fiscal code registration released by Agenzia delle Entrate. • Working declaration from the Italian company the importer works for with the starting date (whenever applicable). • USMAF Declaration (related to the anti-mould products). • “Dichiarazione di libera importazione” (declaration to confirm that the imported goods are not among the ones whose importation is forbidden).

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Autocertificazione (important document which implies the penal responsibility of the owner) in which importer declares: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> His transfer of residence from abroad to Italy, the status of his family, the value of the goods and the features of the audio-visual items, if included. Official proof of a minimum 366 days stay in the country where the shipment is coming from has to be provided. Evidence can be given submitting a declaration from the importer's consulate, if applicable, or submitting an employer's declaration (preferably in Italian language). If none of these are available, copies of utilities/lease contracts might be accepted by the customs. EC Citizen or with EC Citizenship: Same documents as above plus: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Declaration from his Consulate stating that he has been living outside EU Countries for more than 12 months. In case these were not available and importer is relocating for business reasons, an employer's statement is usually accepted. Foreign Diplomats: Ref to "diplomat's removals" section.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
Diplomat's removals	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Foreign diplomats and personnel coming to Italy to join an official international organization or, consulate/embassy will need to obtain the “diplomatic Franchise” (duty free import authorization) through the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Rome. Before being in the position to apply for this, the diplomat has to obtain a special ID and be accredited as diplomat in Italy. The process can take several weeks to be completed and it has to be initiated by the importer’s organization. In addition to the original import authorization, the following documents need to be submitted to the customs: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Shipper’s passport copy. Shipper’s Italian codice fiscale copy. Dichiarazione di libera importazione (declaration to confirm that the imported goods are not among the ones whose importation is forbidden). “USMAF” declaration (related to the inclusion of anti-mould products). Importers need to submit the same paperwork described under “Italian returning citizens”. A certificate from the Administration to which they belong (Foreign Ministry or National Defence etc.) will also assist. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> It is highly recommended to obtain the green light from the Italian agent before forwarding a shipment to Italy. Shipments belonging to members of the Italian Diplomatic and Consular Corps, as well as civil servants and service personnel returning to Italy on completion of their mission abroad, are not usually travelling under a diplomatic status. Import of alcohol is allowed for diplomats but limited to annual quota agreed by the local Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the respective embassies in the country. 	Firearms and ammunitions should not be included in the removal.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
Wedding trousseaux	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The applications should be accompanied by the list of objects comprising the trousseau, the wedding certificate and the certificate of residence in Italy of the married couple. Each present does not have to cost more than EUR 1000.	Customs Office authorises import in franchise of trousseaux and wedding presents belonging to women of Italian or foreign nationality who as a result of their marriage with an Italian citizen, are electing residence in Italy. Application should be addressed to the customs office; which performs the import operations. For Italian or foreign women who settle in Italy as a result of their marriage with a non-Italian, the authorisation for import in franchise is issued, in each individual case, by the Directorate-General of Customs of the Ministry of Finance. Wedding trousseaux are not admitted duty-free into Italy. However, they can enter duty-free as removals if they are used and importation is connected with a transfer of residence.	Motorcars are not considered as part of wedding trousseaux and therefore are not granted duty-free entry.
Inheritances	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Translated and legalized copy of the will/notary act proving that the importer is the only heir having right on the imported goods. 	Importation of used household goods and personal effects is authorised if importation is connected with a transfer of residence (in this case the requirements previously described under “removal goods” apply) or when the importer can prove to be designated as the only heir having right on the imported household goods. The importation has to take place within 2 years from the date the heir becomes the official possessor of the goods.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
New furniture household items presents and souvenirs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Original invoices 	In general presents and souvenirs are liable to payment of duty and VAT.	In case of false declarations (items declared as used while they are brand new), a fine will be assessed by customs, in addition to the payment of duties and taxes.
Works of art & antiques	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Detailed list and accurate description of the art pieces and antiques is required. A legalization of the list from the Italian consulate at origin is advisable. 2 photos for each piece need to accompany the documentation. Additional declarations to be provided. Forms can be supplied by the Italian agent. 	Fine art inspection is required and this will imply additional costs as well as a delay in the customs process. Duties and taxes might be payable.	It is highly recommended to consult the Italian agent before packing and shipping.
Precious metal objects		Objects made by silver (i.e. photo frames, cutlery, trays etc.) within a normal move of household goods are allowed duty free on the same basis and under the same conditions as furniture and other articles. For other precious metal objects, please contact the Italian agent for verification.	No particular prescriptions for the importation of silverware within a household goods removal.
Radios, VCR, Stereo, Camcorders, Televisions, Computer	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Importation of audio-visual appliances; which are not marked "CE" (unless purchased before 01.01.1996) is FORBIDDEN. 		Proof of purchase for items declared being purchased before 01.01.1996 might be required. Related receipts/invoices are to be kept handy (not to be packed in the shipment). Audio-visual items (meeting customs requirements) are to be loaded close to container door to allow customs inspection.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
Motor Vehicles	Returning Italian citizen: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A consular declaration from the Italian embassy stating the length of stay abroad (non EU country for at least 12 months) and the date of return to Italy. Inventory list indicating vehicle plate, chassis no, model etc. and all others relevant details. Proof that the car was continuously used and owned abroad for more than 6 months and that the member had a permanence abroad longer than 12 months. The car has to be mentioned with all its specifications on the Italian inventory with all details legalized and attached to the consular declaration. PLUS for everyone: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Importer's passport copy. Importer's Italian fiscal code. Copy of the residence application showing the last residence country which must correspond to the origin where the vehicle is coming from. Some customs offices might require the original official certificate of residence. 	For all importers: Duty free entry if vehicle has been in possession of importer abroad for more than 6 months. Importers need to prove to have lived in the country where the shipment is coming from for a period longer than 12 months. Official proof of a minimum 366 days stay in the country where the shipment is coming from has to be provided. Evidence can be given submitting a declaration from the importer's consulate, if applicable, or submitting an employer's declaration (preferably in Italian language). If none of these are available, copies of utilities/lease contracts might be accepted by the customs. Before the vehicle is handed over for shipping, customers should be encouraged to verify with the manufacturer whether it is possible to have the vehicle converted to meet Italian/EU requirements in Italy.	Vehicles must have been owned and used by the importer for more than 6 months prior to shipping to Italy. Vehicles cannot be sold or otherwise, disposed of for one year after date of importation. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> If the residence had not yet been applied when the shipment arrives at the customs, duties and taxes will have to be paid. In order to nationalize the car, a Technical Data Sheet issued by the manufacturer stating car features and declaration of conformities with EU requirements will be required. It is highly recommended to obtain the green light from the Italian agent before forwarding vehicles to Italy.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Copy of the invoice. • Original vehicle title (certificate of ownership/logbook of the vehicle) accompanied by a legalized translation into Italian done by the Italian consulate at origin (and in some countries like USA, also from the Secretary of State / Public Notary). If title were withdrawn at origin, the above translation will still be required. • Additionally, the Italian consulate will have to certify that the copy of the title is a true and accurate copy taken from the original. Local authorities will have to provide an original document stating that title has been withdrawn. This declaration will need being submitted at the customs and at the Motorization Office and will have to be accompanied by an original legalized translation done by the Italian consulate at origin. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Vehicles must meet Italian requirements to be registered and driven in Italy or will need being converted. Conversions are not always possible thus it is highly recommended that the shipper checks this issue before exporting the car. • 2 originals will have to be obtained for each document (one original used for customs purposes and one original used for

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
	registration). If the vehicle cannot be imported duty free, part of the above documents will still be needed for the clearance and for the registration process. The forms (“autocertificazione”, “dichiarazione di libera importazione” and “Usmaf declaration”) required for the importation of household goods will also be needed in original for the importation of vehicles.
Caravans and Trailers.	See above.
Plants and vegetable products.	Phytosanitary certificate required.	Normal house plants are admitted duty free as part of a removal provided a certificate of freedom from disease is available from the authorities of the country of origin of the removal (Phytosanitary certificate) otherwise importation prohibited. Among some European countries (i.e. Italy/Switzerland) there is a special agreement that allows free circulation of plants with the exception of some species.	It is recommended that such items should not be included in removals.
Pets, dogs, cats, birds	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Original international vaccination book. Rabies Vaccination and Certificate: all pets must have an original Rabies Certificate signed by the vet. The rabies vaccine must be at least 21 days old at the time of the final health exam. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> All dogs including those imported temporarily must bear a leash and a muzzle. Microchip: each pet shall be identified by means of a microchip. No other form of identification is acceptable. 	For importation of birds, requirements might differ according to the species so it is better to check with the Italian agent.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • It is also suggested that all pets have full vaccinations, as well: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Dogs: Distemper, Hepatitis, Leptospirosis, Parainfluenza and Parvovirus (DHLPP) and Bordatella. ○ Cats: Feline Viral Rhinotracheitis, Calicivirus and Panleukopenia (FVRCP). These should be valid at the time of import and administered no less than 2 weeks before export date for maximum effectiveness. • EU Health Certificate: this is the standard Health Certificate to be filled in by an accredited veterinarian and must be signed in a different color than that of the certificate's printing (normally blue ink). This certificate is valid for 10 days from the date of issue by the official veterinarian until the date of the checks at the EU point of entry. • USDA Endorsements for the below referenced forms: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Microchip Implantation Record. ○ Rabies certificate. ○ Vet letter. ○ EU Vet Health Certificate. 	The microchip must be implanted before the rabies vaccine is administered. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Rabies Vaccination and Certificate: all pets must have an original Rabies Certificate signed by the vet. The rabies vaccine must be at least 21 days old at the time of the final health exam.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
	These must be sent to the local USDA for their stamp of approval. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> International Health Certificate: The vet should have this in stock. This is an international health certificate that needs to be completed by the vet within 10 days of departure. EU passport for pets travelling within Europe. All original documents listed above have to travel with the pet.
Animals' skins		Importation prohibited. Furs are not allowed either.
Dangerous goods, Firearms.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A special permit for their importation must be obtained from the Police Office (Questura Centrale) and from Explosives Department Office but these CANNOT BE INCLUDED in household goods shipments. 		Firearms and ammunitions cannot be imported as household goods. Importer will need to take his own arrangements.
Wine, beverages, alcohol and food		These are not to be included in the shipment with household goods. Import of alcohol is allowed for diplomats but limited to annual quota agreed by the local Ministry of Foreign Affairs and the respective embassies in the country.	These are subject to sanitary inspections and need to be accompanied by sanitary analysis as well as customer's declarations. Taxes and duties to be paid. Shipment of these items is highly discouraged.

Goods	Documents required	Customs Prescriptions	Remarks
Forbidden items	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Narcotics, drugs. 	Importation is forbidden.
Products against the mould / humidity or moisture absorbing bags	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Declaration forms (“Usmaf declaration”) will be provided by the Italian Agent. 	Importers will need to certify whether their shipments do or do not include products against the mould and humidity or moisture absorbing bags. If these were included in the shipment, they will need to be declared and declaration will need to be accompanied by analysis certificates with the composition of the product, certifying that this does not contain Dimetyl Fumarate. The certification must be provided by an accredited UNI CEI EN ISO/IEC 17025 Laboratory and a legalized translation into Italian language might be required. This also applies to the “anti-mould” bags/sachets/absorbing poles that are placed in containers/lift vans by the movers to inhibit mould during transit.	As from April 2009, the Sanitary Division at Italian port/airports have implemented this new requirement on all inbound shipments. It is responsibility of the origin agent to provide the required certification together with the bill of lading.

